

Job Success Seminar: Reducing Career Risk and Reinventing Yourself in Challenging Times

John Schneyer
President of Boca Consultants

Dr. "Woody" Woodward
of Human Capital Integrated

Friday, December 11, 9 am to 12:30 pm

North Regional/Broward College Library
1100 Coconut Creek Blvd., Coconut Creek, FL 33066

9 to 9:30 am Networking. An opportunity to connect with others attending the seminar.

9:30 to 10:30 am Reducing Career Risks in Challenging Times. Topics will include getting a keeping your new job and how to lessen the impact of job loss. Also, learn how to avoid common mistakes that will prevent you from getting the job you want. Presented by John Schneyer, President of Boca Consultants.

10:45 to 11:45 am Thriving in Uncertain Times: An Opportunity to Reinvent Yourself. In these current times of uncertainty we all face the challenge of not knowing what lies ahead. The only way to take control is to create opportunity. Each of us has our own unique compliment of strengths and ambitions, yet most of us never fully leverage them! Presented by Michael "Dr. Woody" Woodward, PhD, Founder and President of Human Capital Integrated.

12 to 12:30 pm Networking. An opportunity to connect with others attending the seminar.

Coffee provided by the Friends of North Regional/Broward College Library.

Reservations are being accepted but are not required. Those who wish to make reservations should send an email to btaylor@browardlibrary.org or call 954-201-2601.